(13) Acencheres II	Horemheb	12/3	{
(15) Ramesses	Horemheb/ Ramesses I	1/4	{

The reigns of Josephus's Achencheres I and II and Ramesses represent three consecutive portions of the reign of Horemheb. Ramesses would correspond to Ramesses I but the portion of his reign given in Josephus applies includes only the time spent as coregent with Horemheb.

The following lines of summation would have appeared in the original Manetho king-list, either all at the end or separately interspersed into the Manetho narrative. Both Africanus and Eusebius indicate that Summation 1 appeared in the middle of the king-list but have differing accounts of the details. Josephus has no such summation line.

Line of Summation 1: Ahmose to Mispfragmuthosis, 72 years

Line of Summation 2: To Amenophis, 131 years

Line of Summation 3: To Sethos, 59 years

Line of Summation 4: Kings of Thebes, 262 years.

Manetho's Nineteenth Dynasty begins here.

(16) Harmesses- Miamun	Ramesses I	66/2	1-2
(18) Sethos	Sethos I	59	11
(19) Rampses	Ramesses II	66	66

² The entries are in Year/Month format.

³ See commentary in Table under the reign of Thmosis and Thutmose III.

⁴ The high year mark comes from a lost copy of an inscription that reads either "14" or "18".

⁵ Hatshepsut's entire reign was as coregent with Thutmose III.

⁶ Thutmose III served 53 years, 10 months, and 26 days, including the coregency with Hatshepsut. He may also have been coregent with his son, Amenhotep II, for about 2 years and 4 months.
